Democratic Caucus Launches Democraticledger.org

Rochester, New York – July 19, 2007. The Democratic Caucus of the Monroe County Legislature launched its new website Democraticledger.org at a press conference this morning.

The website launch marks a new chapter in Democratic Legislators' ongoing efforts to open access to county government. The Democraticledger.org will provide information about the issues before the County Legislature and the solutions that frequently get overlooked.

The site provides a number of things that Monroe County's primary site does not, such as:

- . the actual legislation the legislature is currently considering
- . a calendar indicating when the legislature and its committees meet
- . legislators' current committee assignments
- . accurate information about members of the legislature

"We hope that by providing accurate information about pending legislation and the issues involved, citizens will be better informed about the challenges Monroe County faces, and the efforts that we as legislators go through to address them," said Minority Leader Carla Palumbo.
